Section B

Introduction

This manual is published in terms of Section 14 of the Promotion of Access to Information Act No 2 of 2000. The Act gives effect to the provisions of Section 32 of the Constitution. The Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, Act No. 108 of 1996 stipulates that everyone has the right of access to any information held by the State, and any information that is held by another person that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights and that national legislation must be enacted to give effect to this right.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act gives effect to this constitutional right and came into effect on 9 March 2001. The object of the Act is to foster a culture of transparency and accountability in public and private bodies and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to more fully exercise and protect all of their rights.

South African Human Rights Commission

Section 10 of PAIA provides that the South African Human Rights Commission must compile simple and easily comprehensible guidelines on how to use the Promotion of Access to Information Act. This guide is available for access and viewing in all languages at the South African Human Rights Commission offices Private Bag x2700, Houghton, 2041; Tel - 011 877 3600, Fax - 011 403 0625. Website: www.sahrc.org.za.

Due to the fact that some private bodies (private bodies other than public companies in terms of section 20 of the Companies Act) have been temporarily exempted from publishing section 51 manuals the South African Human Rights Commission have not included the contact details of the private bodies in this first publication of the Guide. An electronic version of the Guide is kept on the website of the South African Human Rights Commission, www.sahrc.org.za, and is updated monthly to keep the public abreast of developments and changes regarding the contact details of information officers of public bodies and general information on PAIA.

How to make a request for access to information

A request for access to a record is made by completing a request "Form C" for private bodies. Form C is available on request from the Maropeng offices, can be viewed at the end of this manual and can also be obtained from the offices and website of the South African Human Rights Commission at www.sahrc.org.za. The request forms must be completed and submitted to Maropeng's Information Officer. The Information Officer must respond to the request within 30 days.

- Packages and Promotions
- Booking on line
- Products and services

- Location and directions
- Contact details

Records that may be requested in terms of Section 51(1)(e)

Requests for access to records held by Maropeng must be made on the request forms that are available from the SAHRC website (www.sahrc.org.za) or the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development website (www.doj.gov.za) (under "regulations").

For the convenience of requesters, copies of these forms are included in the version of this manual, and are also available from our Information Officer whose contact details appear in Section A and at the end of this manual.

Requests for access to records must be made to our Information Officer at the address, fax number or electronic mail address provided.

The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required and indicate if he or she wishes to be informed in any other manner and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.

It is vital that the requester identifies the right that he or she is seeking to exercise or protect and provides an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of our Information Officer. If a requester does not use the standard form, the request may be rejected for lack of procedural compliance, refused (if sufficient information is not provided or otherwise) or delayed.

Please note that requestors are also required to pay the prescribed fees. The list of prescribed fees in respect of requests, and in respect of access to records (if the request is granted) is shown in this manual, in Section E.

The Information Officer will notify the requester (other than a personal requester) of the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request. The requester may lodge an internal appeal or an application to Court against the tender or payment of the request fee.

The Information Officer will then make a decision on the request and notify the requester in the required form.

If the request is granted, then a further access fee must be paid for the reproduction and the search and preparation, and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

All requests to Maropeng will be evaluated and considered in accordance with the Act.

Publication of this Manual and describing the categories and subject matter of information held by Maropeng does not give rise to any rights to access such information or records, except in terms of the Act.

Kindly note that there are a number of grounds for refusal of access to records (Sections 7, 61 and 63 to 70).

Subjects and categories of records held by Maropeng

Maropeng maintains records on the following categories and subject matters. However, please note that recording a category or subject matter in this manual does not imply that a request for access to such records will be honoured. All requests for access will be evaluated on a case by case basis in accordance with the provisions of the Act. In particular, there may be applicable grounds of refusal of such a request, as set out in the Act.

Please note further that many of the records held by Maropeng are those of third parties, such as clients and employees, and we take the protection of third party confidential information very seriously. Requests for access to these records will be considered very carefully. Please ensure that requests for such records are carefully motivated.
